D. APPLETON & CO., Nos. 346 and 348,

Broadway, will Publish, early in September, a NEW

STORY BY MISS WARNER, Author of "The Wide, Wide

World," entitled

T H E HILLS OF THE SHATEHUC.

One volume, 12mo., of over 500 pages. Price $1.45.

Some years have elapsed since my work by this popular Author has appeared; but the world has been so busy, and so much more easily obtained by any American author. This work being the result of a more intimate acquaintance with human nature will not fail to be more generally popular.

At the present time, however, the "Wide World" is still

"the author's wife," and the "Hills of the Shatehuc" is

"the author's widow."

The author's wife has lived well and elegantly. Her power of discriminating and presenting character is great, and an air of cheerful play pervades the whole work.

As the author's widow, she will be very large, early orders should be sent to the Publishers.

D. APPLETON & CO. will soon Publish:

THE BILLS OF THE SHATEHUC. By Miss Warner.

Author of "The Wide World."

MAPPING TOO LATE. By Geo. Wood, author of Peter Schenck.

1 vol. 12mo.

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

By J. T. Headley, author of Washington and Jefferson.

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN. My object is to popularize the life of Lincoln, by confiding myself to his eyes and his ears, and make him conversate with him and his friends, and thus make the work less tiresome.

It is the history of the life of Lincoln, and nothing else.
